EChemtest for Master Degrees in Chemistry and Industrial Chemistry applicants

- The day September 25, 2014, 8:30 am at the classrooms 306-307 - 309-310 - 311, Sector Academic Via Celoria 20, Milan, applicants to Chemistry and Industrial Chemistry Masters at University of Milan will perform the EChemtest (http://ectn-assoc.cpe.fr/echemtest/default.htm) by the European Chemistry Network (ECTN) (http://ectn-assoc.cpe.fr/). The test is mandatory and it will be employed by the Master Degree Committee to better qualify students' knowledge in Chemistry and plan her/his future studies. The test are the Inorganic, Organic, Analytical and Physical Chemistry at level 3 (Bachelor degree) in English.

- Each set is composed of 30 questions to be replied within one hour. Computer laboratories will be employed for remote connections to the testing center website and each desktop will be connected only to the testing center website.

- Personal ID is required. Books, notes or calculators are not allowed in the test rooms. Individual colloquia will take place after the test during the afternoon session.